

Bhupesh Yadav

e-mail: byadav@idfresearch.org, itsbhupesh@rediffmail.com

cell number: 9811654888

Research Interests

- Constructing Social Accounting Matrix (SAM) and Input-Output Tables and studying the impact on economy due to policy changes using multiplier analysis.
- Study of cash transfers as an alternative to existing service delivery mechanisms
- Conducting impact evaluation of developmental projects

Educational Qualifications

- Masters of Business Administration (Finance) from SIES College of Management Studies, Mumbai (2000-02).
- B.Com, Andhra University (1994-1997)

Work Experience

India Development Foundation (2004-Till date)

Fellow

Responsibilities:

- Leading and managing various types of developmental projects.
- Working with fellow researchers in identifying developmental issues pertaining to policy in particular sectors and writing reports and research papers.
- Planning and designing of primary surveys, developing questionnaires, coding and tabulation of raw data using statistical packages and data analysis.
- Data processing of secondary data sets such as NSS, ASI, and Census; coding, tabulation of data and presentation of data with analysis.
- Developing proposals for funded projects and research outputs.

Projects:

- Assessment of ICT based training programme for Mid-Day meal cooks in Varanasi and Dhenkanal
- Construction of Input-output table of Uttarakhand state for the year 2017-18
- Social Accounting Matrix for 2015-16 for India and studied the impact of construction sector on cement and other sectors of the economy
- Construction of SAM for Andhra Pradesh and Telangana for the year 2011-12
- Construction of SAM for Andhra Pradesh for the year 2007-08

- Impact evaluation project on women's empowerment in three districts of Uttar Pradesh funded by IKEA foundation, India (Project lead)
- Impact evaluation of MDG1(Poverty alleviation at target group level) through developing livelihood opportunities in poultry farming for small holder producer in Lohardaga district of Jharkhand, funded by WOTRO science for Global Development, Netherlands (Project lead)
- Impact evaluation of MDG1(Poverty alleviation at target group level) by creating sustainable livelihood opportunities through effective management of co-operatives, where all the SHGs linked with the cooperative will manage the regular savings, loan disburse, loan refund and record maintenance. Also, evaluating capacity development of the stakeholders in the chain in Phiringia block of Kandhmal district in Odisha, funded by WOTRO science for Global Development, Netherlands (Project lead)
- Implemented and evaluated pilot study on conditional cash transfer as an alternative to Public Distribution System (PDS) in West Delhi, in collaboration with Delhi Government, funded by UNDP (Project lead)
- Construction of All-India SAM consisting of 73 sectors for the year 2003-04 funded by Planning Commission.
- Construction of Input-Output tables consisting of 130 sectors for the year 2003-04 funded by Central Statistical Organisation (CSO).
- Impact of trade liberalization on the service sector-2007, funded by United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD).
- Study of Employment Guarantee Programmes & pro-poor economic development- Studying the impact of National Rural Employment Guarantee (NREG) works on village economies.
- Construction of state specific consumer price indices relative to all India for studying the disparity in the level of living at the state level, Planning Commission.
- Study of the impact of economic slowdown on GDP, employment and poverty, World Bank.
- Construction of Input-Output table for the year 2005 funded by Institute of Developing economies (IDE)-Japan.
- Construction of SAM for three regions for the year 2003-04 funded by Finance commission.
- Report on the food processing industry in India- Challenges & opportunities for trade and investments, British High Commission.
- Capacity building for policy makers, regulators, inspecting firms, small agricultural exporters and importers in India to face the SPS measures.
- Sector wise distribution of employment by status and income, IDE-Japan

Centre for Monitoring Indian economy (CMIE) (2002-2004)

Business Analyst

Responsibilities:

- Training clients on availability of data and conceptual issues on indicators of different databases developed by the company.

- Preparing training modules for clients.
- Analysing data and putting it to best use for the client.

Technical Skills

- Advance Diploma in Computer Applications (NIIT).
- Proficient in STATA, Elementary knowledge of SPSS.

Presentations/Publications

- Gross Domestic Products from Services Sector- Methodology, Data Sources, & Limitations. Saluja M.R and Yadav Bhupesh, EPW (Economic & Political Weekly), Issue: Vol 42, No : 37, Sep 15- Sep 21, 2007
- Compilation Issues of Input-Output Tables of India presented at TERI Conference, December 2007.
- Industrial Statistics in India; Sources, Limitations and Data Gaps presented at IGIDR Conference, June 2008
- Yadav Bhupesh, 'It's simple multiplication' The Financial Express, 27th August, 2009.
- Employment Guarantee Programme and Pro-poor Growth in Developing Countries Analyzing Multiplier Impact of NREGA Works through SAM Modeling in India, Saluja M.R and Yadav Bhupesh, Academic Foundations, 2010
- Presented paper on "Regional social Accounting Matrix for India, 2007" in International Conference on Input-Output table in Portugal, 2014
- Gangopadhyay Shubhashis, Lensik Robert and Yadav Bhupesh, "Cash or In Kind Transfers? Evidence from a Randomised, Controlled Trial in Delhi, India", Published in Journal of Developmental Studies, 2015
- Chadha, N., Gangopadhyay, S., & Yadav, B. (2018). No Demand for Skill: The Bane of India's Vocational Training. Review of Market Integration, 10(2), 120-137.